Mr. Dulles dictated the attached letter to you but it was not typed until after his departure on a brief trip to Europe.

He called me from New York and asked that it be forwarded to you unsigned.

Sincerely,

Secretary to Mr. Dulles

Dear Harry:

It is with sincere regret that I have learned of the death of your brother. There is little that can be said or done in times such as this, but I want you to know that my thoughts are with you.

Please accept my deepest sympathy.

Sincerely,
